RE: FOIA Case No. 2019-FPRO-01335

Dear Mr. Story:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated August 27, 2019, in which you seek access to Postal Service records. Specifically, you requested:

an export of the data that is utilized in the Post Office Locator tool at <https://tools.usps.com/go/POLocatorAction>. This data could be a "dump" of the database that backs the tool, or the files that are used to populate that database.

Optimally the data should contain:

- All USPS Post Offices and Approved Postal Providers
- All USPS Collection Boxes

The fields provided for each location would optimally include:

- The name e.g. "Roslindale" or "USPS Collection Box – Blue Box"
- The address
- The latitude and longitude
- Hours of operation (for post offices)
- List of On-Site services (for post offices and approved postal providers)

A search was performed by the appropriate department and the attached records are responsive to your request. The records are being released to you, in their entirety on the enclosed CD.

If you are not satisfied with the response to this request, you may file an administrative appeal within 90 days of the date of this response letter by writing to the General Counsel Postal Service 475 L'Enfant Plaza SW Washington, DC 20260 or via email at FOIAAppeal@usps.gov. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of the response to your request. The letter of appeal should include, as applicable:

1. A copy of the request, of any notification of denial or other action, and of any other related correspondence;
2. The FOIA tracking number assigned to the request;
3. A statement of the action, or failure to act, from which the appeal is taken;
4. A statement identifying the specific redactions to responsive records that the requester is challenging;
5. A statement of the relief sought; and

6. A statement of the reasons why the requester believes the action or failure to act is erroneous.
